

Now is the time...

for you to become part of this high growth industry. How? By investing in yourself and completing Western Pacific Truck School's Tractor Trailer Operator Program. More than ever, Professional Truck Drivers are in high demand.

"We recognize your training school as a definitive leader in the training of entry level drivers, and one that meets our high standards. Your program provides students with a solid foundation that enables them to advance easily within our training program."

- Werner Enterprises.

Students are trained with various tractor and trailer combinations commonly used in the Industry.

What You Learn

Western Pacific Truck School's Tractor Trailer Operator Program consists of classroom and field training. The students will drive on the open road in highway, city, and heavy traffic conditions.

Course work includes:

- Safe and efficient operation of tractor and trailer combinations.
- Defensive driving techniques, backing, safety and emergency procedures.
- DOT safety rules and regulations.
- Evaluations and critiques from our team of professional instructors.

Upon successful completion of our course and receiving a Commercial Drivers License, graduates have the qualifications necessary to enter the industry as entry-level diesel tractor/trailer drivers.

Tuition & Reimbursement

Financing is available for qualified applicants and select courses are approved for the training of Veterans. Also – be sure to ask about "Tuition Reimbursement" Programs. In many cases the companies that hire our graduates will reimburse their employees for the cost of CDL training.

Job Placement Assistance

No school can promise you a job. However, we have earned a solid reputation within the trucking industry, as an excellent source of well-trained entry-level drivers. Recruiters from some of the top trucking companies in the nation visit our campuses regularly to present information on available jobs and the trucking industry as a whole. Throughout the course students are advised on topics ranging from filling out applications to developing the attitude and work habits that employers seek. The ultimate success of our training program is the success of our graduates in the job market.

"The quality of Western Pacific's students has set the standard for entry-level drivers. We are glad to be in partnership with your school. Taking pride in our business does not come overnight. Building team relationships begins here, one driver at a time."

- Trans-System, Inc.
